

HUBZone Small Business FY2021 Prime Contracting

Historically Underutilized Business Zones (HUBZone) Small Businesses are expanding and contributing to the economy at a record-breaking level. By competing for and winning federal contracts, HUBZone small businesses have supported over 61K jobs, driving job creation, innovation, and economic growth on a local, regional, and national level.

Outreach Efforts

- SBA continued promotion of recent HUBZone program improvements to agency contracting officials and small businesses by hosting training sessions and publishing updated information on sba.gov/HUBZone.
- SBA continued collaboration with Procurement Technical Assistance Centers and other resources to help procurement-ready firms submit applications and compete in the federal marketplace.

Advocating for Small Business

- The program fuels growth of small businesses in HUBZones by certifying eligible firms and granting preferential access to federal contracts.
- The Federal government goal is to award at least 3% of all federal contracting dollars to HUBZone-certified small businesses each year. Visit HUBZone Program
