In recognition of the small business community's contributions to the American economy and society, the President of the United States designates one week each year as National Small Business Week.

Leading up to the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Celebration — 2009 National Small Business Week, special events will be held highlighting the tremendous contributions of small business people and business champions at the State, District, and National levels. The National Small Business Person of the Year and the national Business Champions of the Year are announced and honored during the celebration scheduled on May 17-23, 2009 in Washington, D.C.

The New Mexico Small Business Week Celebration will recognize outstanding small businesses for their personal achievements and contributions to the New Mexico and National economy.
