

BUSINESS INFORMATION CENTER

(BIC)

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

PROVIDED BY THE OFFICE OF BUSINESS & COMMUNITY INITIATIVES
TO APPROVED BIC SITES

We welcome you to SBA's HOME PAGE BUSINESS INFORMATION CENTER. If you've visited the BIC in your area, you know it has the latest in computer technology to START, RUN and GROW your business. The equipment is updated regularly. Here's what you can find in SBA's BICs installed in Fiscal Year 2002.

Computer Hardware (minimum standards)

- * Pentium™ 866 MHz. CPU with a minimum 200 GB hard drive; 1.44" floppy drive, internal CD-ROM; 16-bit soundcard; 256 MB RAM; 17" color monitor; 104 keyboard; and serial mouse.
- * Local Area Network Server with a minimum Pentium III™ 550 MHz. CPU; 20 GB hard drive; 1.44 floppy drive; internal CD-Rom; 256 MB RAM; 104 keyboard; and serial mouse.

Computer & CD-ROM Software

- * See Computer Software Specifications

Audio Visual Hardware

- * 1 19" Color TV/VCR

Printers

- * 1 - HP 2100 TN Laser Printer
- * 1 - ColorJet 895

Copier

- * 1 - copy machine.
- * 1 - Scanjet Flatbed - HP 6350 LXI
- * 1 - Farallon Netopia Router (DSL or ISDN)

Security System

- * Sensormatic or similar magnetometer system for providing ongoing security for all reference materials.

Reference Material

- * The Entrepreneur Group - A complete reference library of approximately 53 individual start-up business manuals, including software disks containing spreadsheet templates plus audio and video tapes on specific industries.
- * Business Valuation Bluebook
- * PSI/Oasis Press - Small Business Reference Library including "Starting a Business" in each state and DC plus 35 reference books.
- * Inc. Business Resource Library - 3 Books and 4 Manuals & Tim Berry's Business Plan Pro 4.0
- * Adams Media Publications and 1 CD-ROM Software

Quick Reference Software Guides

- * Internet for Dummies

Video Tapes

- * Inc. Business Resource Library - 25 Videos.

February 2003